

INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

A Study in Algerian Law

BY DR. FARAH AÏCHA

Lecturer, Faculty of Law
University of Algiers 1

Book title: Industrial Property Rights

A Study in Algerian Law

Author: Farah Aïcha

Size: 15,5 × 23,5

Number of pages : 108

ISBN : 978-9969-615-75-3

Dar Laima Publications, 2026

Legal creativity: January -2026

All rights reserved

To contact us

Kolea Tipaza - Algeria

Mobile :+ 213 (0) 550.085.725

WWW.NLLIBRAIRIE.COM

Copyright Resrved For Dar Laima Publications © 2026

Reproduction Of This Book Or Any Part Of In Any From,
Copying, Translation, Audio-Visual Recording, Electronic Computation, Or Other Rights Are Prohibited Without Written Permission From Dar Laima Publishing House.

Table of Contents

Introduction.....	5
Chapter One: Rights Relating to Industrial Innovations.....	9
Section One: Subject Matter Rights.....	9
Subsection One: Patents.....	9
Part One: Definition of a Patent and Its Legal Nature	10
First: Definition of a patent.....	10
Second: The Legal Nature of the Patent.....	12
Part Two: Conditions for Granting a Patent	15
First: Substantive conditions	15
Second: Formal Requirements	21
Part Three: Legal Effects of Granting a Patent.....	24
First: Rights conferred on the patentee.....	24
Second: Transfer of Rights to Third Parties.....	27
Third: Extinction of Rights Arising from the Patent.....	29
Part Four: International Protection of Patents	30
First: Protection under the Paris Convention.....	30
Second: Protection of Patents under the Washington Treaty on International Cooperation in the Field of Patents (PCT)	33

Third: The International Patent Classification Agreement (IPC), 1981.....	35
Subsection Two: Layout-Designs of Integrated Circuits.....	37
Part One: Definition of Layout-Designs of Integrated Circuits	37
First: Doctrinal definition.....	37
Second: Legislative definition.....	38
Third: Technical definition.....	39
Part Two: Conditions for Protecting Layout-Designs of Integrated Circuits.....	39
First: Substantive conditions	39
Second: Formal conditions	41
Part Three: Legal Effects of Registering a Layout-Design of an Integrated Circuit	43
First. Rights arising from registration	43
Second. Obligations arising from registration	44
Part Four: Protection Afforded to Layout-Designs of Integrated Circuits.....	45
First: Domestic protection	45
Section Two: Rights in Form (Industrial Drawings and Models)	46

Subsection One: Definition of Industrial Drawings and Models and the Conditions for Their Protection	47
Part One: Definitions	47
First: Definition of a drawing.....	47
Second: Definition of an industrial model.....	48
Part Two: Conditions for Protecting Industrial Drawings and Models.....	49
First: Substantive conditions	49
Second: Formal conditions	50
Subsection Two: Protection of Industrial Drawings and Models	51
Part One: Domestic Protection of Industrial Drawings and Models.....	51
First: Criminal protection.....	52
Second: Civil protection	52
Third: Protection derived from copyright law	52
Part Two: International Protection of Industrial Drawings and Models.....	53
First: Protection under the Paris Convention.....	53
Second: The Hague Agreement on the International Deposit of Industrial Designs.....	54

Third: The TRIPS Agreement.....	55
Chapter Two: Distinctive Signs.....	57
Section One: The Mark.....	57
Subsection One: Definition of the Mark and the Importance of its Protection.....	58
Part One: Definition of the Mark	58
First: Doctrinal definition.....	58
Second: Legislative definition.....	59
Part Two: The Importance of Trademark Protection	62
First: Why the mark matters to its owner	62
Second: The importance of the mark for consumers	63
Third: The importance of the mark in preserving market competition	64
Subsection Two: Conditions for Protecting a Mark	65
Part One: Substantive Conditions for Trademark Protection ..	65
First. Distinctive character.....	66
Second. Novelty (prior non-use).....	66
Third. Lawfulness of the mark	69
Second: Formal requirements for a trademark	70
Part Two: Extinction of the Mark	70

First: Extinction based on the proprietor's will	70
Second: Extinction of the Mark by Judicial Decision.....	71
Part Three: Legal Protection of Marks.....	73
First: Domestic protection of marks	73
Second: International Protection of Marks.....	77
Section Two: Appellations of Origin.....	85
Subsection One: Definition of Appellations of Origin and Distinction from Related Terms.....	85
Part One: Definition of Appellations of Origin	86
First : Legislative definition	86
Second: Doctrinal Definition	87
Section Two: Distinguishing Appellations of Origin from Related Concepts	87
Part Two: Conditions for Protecting Appellations of Origin ...	89
Section Four: Legal Protection Afforded to Appellations of Origin.....	91
Part One: Domestic protection	91
First: Criminal protection.....	91
Second: Civil protection	92
Part Two: International Protection	93

First: Madrid Agreement on the Repression of False or Deceptive Indications of Source	93
Second: The Lisbon Agreement	94
References.....	97

Author Biography

Dr. Farah Aicha is a Lecturer at the Faculty of Law, University of Algiers 1. She specializes in Public Business Law and Intellectual Property Law. She joined the academic profession in 2011, obtained her PhD in Legal Sciences (Law) in 2017, and was awarded the Habilitation to Supervise Research in 2020. The author has published several academic studies and scientific articles and has participated in numerous national and international conferences within her field of specialization.

Book Description

This book provides a legal study of industrial property rights under Algerian law, through an analysis of the rules governing the protection of trademarks, patents, industrial designs, and other elements of industrial property. It highlights the mechanisms for acquiring these rights and the legal means available for their protection, while addressing the practical issues arising from their application in light of contemporary economic and technological developments.

This work serves as a reference for law students, researchers, legal practitioners, and entrepreneurs, combining academic depth with practical insight.

ISBN: 978-9969-615-75-3

9

789969

615753

1/170

إمسح هذا الرقابة
للاطلاع على الفهرس

القلبة - تبازة

024 280 771

0550 085 725

WWW.NLLIBRAIRIE.COM